

COCHLEAR™
GRAEME CLARK
SCHOLARSHIP

ADVANCE YOUR CAREER

“ I am very grateful to have been selected as a winner for this Graeme Clark scholarship and appreciate all that cochlear has done for me, as receiving a cochlear implant was life-changing and has allowed me to connect with others and appreciate the importance of hearing the world around me. ”

- Monica, scholarship winner 2020

Are you our next Cochlear™ $15,000 education scholarship recipient?

The Graeme Clark Scholarship, awarded by Cochlear Limited, is a unique award set up to help recipients of Cochlear™ hearing solutions who are residents of Australia and New Zealand reach their goals through university study.

The scholarship consists of financial assistance of $5,000 per year for a three-year undergraduate degree at an accredited university and is paid in installments on the successful completion of each consecutive year of study. It is available to those who are currently completing their final year of high school, currently attending university, or mature aged students who have been accepted into a university course.

Awarded on the basis of academic achievement and a demonstrated commitment to the Cochlear ideals of leadership and humanity, the winner of the Graeme Clark Scholarship is an ambassador for Cochlear and will be invited to engage in media and public awareness events as necessary.

I understand that, should I be awarded the Graeme Clark Scholarship:

I will be paid AUD$5,000 each year for up to three years to be applied towards educational costs. Payment will be made after the completion of each year of study and is subject to and conditional upon provision to Cochlear of an academic transcript confirming successful completion of each subject. I understand that, should I fail to successfully complete another year of studies, my scholarship will be discontinued and no further payments will be made.

I understand that during the period of the scholarship, I will:

- be expected to remain a validly enrolled student with my university;
- be willing and reasonably available from time to time to attend events, media launches and public awareness campaigns to which Cochlear may invite me for the purpose of acting as an ambassador for Cochlear;
- consent to the publication of your name and photograph in association with Cochlear and/or the scholarship in any manner that Cochlear thinks fit; and
- not make comments to others about Cochlear, except in a manner that is supportive of our business and reputation.

I attach all the required documentation, which I understand will not be returned to me.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Your application should include the following information:

The application form, completed and signed. Ensure all answers are typed or printed clearly. Hand and digital signatures are accepted.

A short personal statement describing your academic aspirations and other interests. This should describe your area of proposed study, your goals post-graduation and the reasons why you wish to be a Graeme Clark Scholar. This statement must not exceed 1000 words and should be written in a simple and direct manner. You must sign the statement; digital and hand signatures are accepted.

Final school academic results (attach copy).

Prior university academic transcripts (if available).

Your university admissions notice (if available).

A succinct list of the principle activities and awards in school (including prizes, scholarships, offices held, athletic record and extracurricular activities) with dates. This summary must not exceed one A4 page in length, and should be set in a typeface no smaller than 10 points.

One photocopy of your birth certificate, passport or other proof of age and citizenship.

Proof of residency e.g. driver's license.

Three letters of reference. The referees should not be directly related to you, and preferably have known you for at least two years. At least two referees must be individuals from whom you have received educational instructions.

Please keep in mind your application will be evaluated on your academic achievements, extracurricular activities, community involvement and leadership skills. The overall quality of your application will also be judged. If you have further enquiries please email: customerservice@cochlear.com

Applicants must submit their completed application form with all supporting documentation and required information by the deadline. No late applications or partially completed applications will be accepted. Please do not send original documents where copies have been requested, as documents will not be returned. The amount payable under the terms of the scholarship is the total amount payable and any liability for any tax is the responsibility of the recipient of the scholarship. Liability for payment of all course fees and other costs of study remain the full responsibility of the recipient of the scholarship and Cochlear accepts no obligation, financial or otherwise to any party other than under the terms of this scholarship.

Deadline date for applications:

30 April 2022
