Curious if you could be hearing better?

- Can you understand the TV without turning the volume up or using captions?
- Can you understand people on the telephone?
- Can you participate in large group conversations, like dinner parties?
- Does background noise make it hard to hear?
- Can you understand better if you see someone's face or mouth while they speak?

An evaluation is an opportunity to learn about the best hearing treatment for you.

If hearing aids are no longer enough, ask your healthcare provider about a cochlear implant evaluation!
