

Exercise 3.11 Phonemes – voicing versus voiceless words in carrier phrase

Speaker Copy

Listener Copy

---

Instructions from the Speaker to the Listener

I will say two sentences, pointing to each sentence as I say it, then repeat one sentence. Please tell me which sentence I repeated. (The Speaker chooses which sentence to repeat.)

- 1 A Look at the fleas on that sheep.
B Look at the fleece on that sheep.

- 2 A He should have taken a card.
B He should have taken a cart.

- 3 A I don't know what we'll do about that mop.
B I don't know what we'll do about that mob.

- 4 A I'm worried about our horse's feet.
B I'm worried about our horse's feed.

- 5 A The rope is over there on the floor.
B The robe is over there on the floor.

- 6 A He's always thinking about that pup.
B He's always thinking about that pub.

- 7 A The farmer bought a new pick.
B The farmer bought a new pig.

- 8 A He put the parcels on his back.
B He put the parcels on his bag.

---

<sup>9</sup> Source: Plant, 1984, Commtram, NAL, Australia.

- 9 A Have you seen the new dock?
B Have you seen the new dog?
- 10 A The girl was looking at the beautiful charm.
B The girl was looking at the beautiful chart.
- 11 A He was looking at the card.
B He was looking at the cart.
- 12 A The boy hit the little dog.
B The boy hid the little dog.
- 13 A Is that a new coat?
B Is that a new code?
- 14 A Pick up that lock and follow me.
B Pick up that log and follow me.
- 15 A We need some new seeds for the garden.
B We need some new seats for the garden.